

,Let me tell you about my mother i love
!She is an angel, sent by God from above
,She touches the hearts and the souls within !Draws true smiles and wipes any fake grin She brings love and peace when there is hatred and
!war
She brings back faith when it wont come back
!anymore
She is a blessing brought to us, a bliss from the
!God
!She is truely priceless, More than I can ever afford
!She is a great Queen, to whom we should all bow God made me her prince! And here is my promised
!VOW
I promise to believe in what she believes in and
!take care
! I promise to truely respect her God, please bless her, and watch over my MOTHER mothers are everything without our moms' love

we will never get through this life thier care

thier unconditional love thier support is the fuel for us to go and try thanx bro for sharing

See u when i See u

Mothers day poem

She's My angel

She's the nearest thing to heaven

She's my angel From above

She's the reason I was born

She's my Mother and I'll live for her disoare forgtting my own and her needs will come before

I'll never forget what she did for me and that's for sure who could ever love my mother more
